

Public Transit Options in Miami

The Airport Flyer runs every 30 minutes and has minimal stops from the airport to South Beach.

The Airport Flyer

The Metrobus

More than 800 buses travel around Miami and north into Broward County and south into the Middle Keys, Florida City and Homestead.

The Metrorail

The Metrorail runs north and south through Miami. There are more than 20 stops and the service runs every day of the week.

The Tri-Rail

Tri-Rail provides easy access to many of the most popular spots in south Florida.

Brightline and MiamiCentral

Brightline runs from MiamiCentral Station to Fort Lauderdale and West Palm Beach.

Learn more at:
InjuryLawyers.com

Steinger, Iscoe & Greene
INJURYLAWYERS.COM